

Jenne's Extreme Networks Support Team

Jenne's high touch, fast response model distinguishes us from the competition. Our reps are highly trained and certified—with on-going training throughout each year to maintain critical insight on the advancements in the Extreme Networks product catalog. Our goal is to establish a deep working relationship with your team—to ensure you and your customers' needs are met, critical technical knowledge is shared, and sales goals are achieved.

Account Specialists

We provide hardware and renewal quotes, while assisting you with the processing and tracking of orders.

Field Sales Specialists

We work with partners to contribute to their business plan development and execution helping them to be more successful.

Business Development Managers and Specialists

We ensure our partners remain current with the latest product releases and promotions from Extreme and Jenne.

Design and Technical Specialists

We aid partners on the technical design side and help with configurations for every Bill of Materials.

Marketing Specialists

Need to get the word out? We help partners with key marketing initiatives and help promote your company brand.

Product Managers

We manage stock and are always ready to help partners stay current on product availability and inventory.
